

Latihan Soal Bahasa Inggris

1. What is the definition of a narrative text?
 - A. A text that explains how to do something step by step
 - B. A text that tells a story involving characters and a sequence of events
 - C. A text that describes a particular person, place, or thing
 - D. A text that argues a specific point of view
 - E. A text that reports actual news events
2. What is the primary purpose of a narrative text?
 - A. To entertain or engage the reader through a story
 - B. To inform the reader about factual events
 - C. To persuade the reader to buy a product
 - D. To describe a scientific process
 - E. To criticize a literary artwork
3. Which of the following is NOT a common example of a narrative text?
 - A. Fairy tales
 - B. Legends
 - C. Fables
 - D. Instruction manuals
 - E. Myths
4. What is the correct generic structure of a narrative text?
 - A. Orientation - Sequence of Events - Complication - Resolution - Coda
 - B. Orientation - Complication - Sequence of Events - Resolution - Coda
 - C. Complication - Orientation - Resolution - Sequence of Events - Coda
 - D. Orientation - Resolution - Complication - Sequence of Events - Coda
 - E. Coda - Orientation - Complication - Sequence of Events - Resolution
5. Which structural element introduces the characters, setting, and time of the story?
 - A. Coda
 - B. Resolution
 - C. Sequence of Events
 - D. Complication
 - E. Orientation
6. What is introduced in the complication stage of a narrative text?
 - A. The time and setting of the story
 - B. The moral lesson or message
 - C. The main problem or conflict faced by the characters
 - D. The final outcome of the main conflict
 - E. The general description of the characters
7. In a narrative text, the sequence of events is usually presented in...
 - A. Alphabetical order
 - B. Reverse chronological order
 - C. Random order
 - D. Chronological order
 - E. Geographical order
8. Which of the following statements about "Resolution" is TRUE?
 - A. It must always end with a happy outcome.
 - B. It must always end with a tragic outcome.
 - C. It can have a positive, negative, or unresolved outcome.
 - D. It always states the explicit moral lesson.
 - E. It introduces a completely new conflict.
9. The optional closing section that states the lesson, moral, or message of the story is called...
 - A. Sequence
 - B. Orientation
 - C. Complication
 - D. Resolution
 - E. Coda
10. Which verb tense is frequently used in narrative texts because they commonly describe events that occurred in the past?
 - A. Simple Present Tense
 - B. Present Continuous Tense
 - C. Simple Past Tense
 - D. Simple Future Tense
 - E. Present Perfect Tense
11. Words like first, then, next, after that, and finally are examples of...
 - A. Action verbs
 - B. Temporal connectives
 - C. Specific participants
 - D. Adjectives
 - E. Pronouns
12. Based on the story of "The Tortoise and the Hare", what serves as the complication?
 - A. A hare and a tortoise lived in a forest.
 - B. The tortoise reaches the finish line first.
 - C. The hare challenges the tortoise to a race.
 - D. The hare becomes overconfident and takes a nap.
 - E. Perseverance is more valuable than overconfidence.

13. Action verbs describe events and activities performed by characters. Which of the following is an example of an action verb?
 - A. Beautiful
 - B. Quickly
 - C. Walked
 - D. Very
 - E. They
14. Why are adjectives and adverbs often used in narrative texts (Descriptive Language)?
 - A. To describe characters, settings, and actions
 - B. To indicate the chronological order of events
 - C. To introduce the central conflict
 - D. To summarize the moral lesson
 - E. To replace the action verbs
15. Narratives commonly refer to specific participants rather than general groups. An example of a specific participant is...
 - A. A general group of animals
 - B. The society
 - C. Belle and the Beast
 - D. Humans in general
 - E. People
16. What is the definition of reported speech?
 - A. It reports the exact words of the speaker using quotation marks.
 - B. It reports the meaning of what another person said without reproducing the exact words.
 - C. It is a speech delivered in front of a large audience.
 - D. It is a text that tells a fictional story.
 - E. It only reports commands and requests.
17. When the reporting verb is in the past tense, the verb in the reported clause commonly undergoes a "backshift", which means...
 - A. The tense is moved one step forward.
 - B. The tense remains exactly the same.
 - C. The tense is moved one step backward.
 - D. The tense changes to future continuous.
 - E. The verbs are completely omitted.
18. Change this direct speech to reported speech: She said, "I like English."
 - A. She said that she likes English.
 - B. She said that she liked English.
 - C. She said that I liked English.
 - D. She said that I like English.
 - E. She said she had liked English.
19. If the direct speech uses the Present Continuous tense (e.g., am studying), what tense should be used in the reported speech?
 - A. Past Simple
 - B. Present Perfect
 - C. Past Continuous
 - D. Past Perfect
 - E. Future Simple
20. Change this direct speech to reported speech: He said, "I went to Jakarta."
 - A. He said that he goes to Jakarta.
 - B. He said that he went to Jakarta.
 - C. He said that he had gone to Jakarta.
 - D. He said that he has gone to Jakarta.
 - E. He said that he was going to Jakarta.
21. In reported speech, the time expression "tomorrow" commonly changes to...
 - A. that day
 - B. the day before
 - C. then
 - D. the next day
 - E. that night
22. Choose the grammatically correct pattern for the verb "tell" in reported speech.
 - A. tell + something
 - B. tell + that + statement
 - C. tell + person + something
 - D. tell + if + statement
 - E. tell + question word
23. Change to reported speech: He asked, "Are you tired?"
 - A. He asked me if I am tired.
 - B. He asked me whether I was tired.
 - C. He asked me that I was tired.
 - D. He asked me why I was tired.
 - E. He asked me was I tired.
24. For reported WH-Questions, what is the essential rule regarding word order?
 - A. question word + normal question word order
 - B. question word + statement word order
 - C. if/whether + statement
 - D. asked + to + V1
 - E. that + question word + statement
25. Change to reported speech: She asked, "Where do you live?"
 - A. She asked me where did I live.
 - B. She asked me where do I live.
 - C. She asked me where I lived.
 - D. She asked me where I live.
 - E. She asked me if I lived there.

26. Commands in reported speech are commonly reported using the structure...
- A. tell + person + to + V1
 - B. tell + person + that + V1
 - C. say + to + V1
 - D. ask + if + V1
 - E. said + not to + V1
27. Change the negative command to reported speech: Dad said, "Don't touch that."
- A. Dad told me don't touch that.
 - B. Dad told me to not touch that.
 - C. Dad told me not to touch that.
 - D. Dad told me to touch that.
 - E. Dad told me didn't touch that.
28. When is a backshift in reported speech generally NOT necessary?
- A. When the reporting verb is in the past tense.
 - B. When the reported statement is a WH-Question.
 - C. When the reported statement describes a fact that remains true.
 - D. When pronouns in the sentence need to be changed.
 - E. When time expressions change to a different context.
29. Change to reported speech: Sarah said, "The Earth is round."
- A. Sarah said that the Earth was round.
 - B. Sarah said that the Earth is round.
 - C. Sarah said that the Earth had been round.
 - D. Sarah said if the Earth is round.
 - E. Sarah said that the Earth would be round.
30. Change to reported speech: David said to Maria, "I will finish this today."
- A. David told Maria that he will finish this today.
 - B. David told Maria that he would finish that that day.
 - C. David told Maria that he would finish this that day.
 - D. David told Maria that I would finish that that day.
 - E. David told Maria that he had finished that that day.